Consider the variety of ways we use the word "service" to describe the work of different people. Those who work in government are said to have given themselves to public service. Members of the Army, Navy, Air Force, and Marines are all part of the armed services. Hotel and restaurant employees are said to work in the service industries, along with barbers, hair dressers, flight attendants, and entertainers, although it is a bit of a stretch to imagine folks like Jimmy Kimmel, Jay Leno, or Stephen Colbert in the same category as the hotel housekeeping staff. Every one of these service-oriented groups also has its caricature of the lazy, inefficient provider. There's the often joked about drivers' license examiner. There's Beetle Bailey of cartoon fame. And comedy skits about airline stewardesses or hotel maids abound. Yet all of these professions continue to distinguish themselves, despite the occasional "bad apple" that may turn up. In the Gospel this weekend Jesus makes it clear that a servant (that is, a believer) must be constantly vigilant. Peter asked directly, "Is the parable meant for us or for everyone?" Jesus didn't answer him directly, but went on to add another parable describing the prudent, industrious servant and the lazy one. We do not know when the Lord will return, and so we cannot rest on our laurels as though one good deed or one proclamation of the Gospel is enough. Yes, we have our employment, our family, our personal needs that we must attend to. But we are also servants of the Lord. When we get up in the morning, while we are preparing for the day and running through in our heads the list of everything we must accomplish that day, one of the things we can ask ourselves is, "What kind of a servant of God am I going to be today?" That can give us a sense of what can guide our actions as we work though the day.

For the Week The Tabernacle Candles will burn this week in memory of Mary Danysh at the request of her daughter, Natalie and family. The Sanctuary Candle will burn this week in memory of Veronica Zielinski at the request of her daughter, Angela. The Blessed Mother Flowers are placed in memory of Marie Smith at the request of Connie, Jerry & Sylvia.

STEWARDSHIP "For where your treasure is, there also will your heart be." Luke 12:34

Jesus encourages us to build up our treasure in heaven. The world encourages us to build up our treasure in real estate, investments, and material goods. How much time are you investing in building up a worldly treasure? How much time are you investing in building up a heavenly treasure? To invest more time in the things of heaven, you must let go of some of the things of this world.

WEEKLY WEBSITE REFLECTIONS

Don't forget to visit our website to watch inspirational videos from parishioners of both Christ the King & Sacred Heart Parishes. Just visit; www.ctkmanvillechurch.com.

FROM THE PASTORS I would like to personally thank all of the parishioners from Christ the King and Sacred Heart; and their families and friends who not only came to enjoy and participate in the 45th Annual Sacred Heart Festival, but especially those of you who worked so hard to help behind the scenes. From peeling potatoes to baking cakes and everything in between, ALL of your hard work is greatly appreciated and helped to make the festival a huge success!
Father Stan

The Assumption of the Blessed Virgin Mary

The Assumption of the Blessed Virgin Mary into Heaven at the end of her earthly life is a defined dogma of the Catholic Church. It commemorates the death of Mary and her bodily assumption into Heaven.

Dogma—"a doctrine or body of doctrines concerning faith or morals formally stated and authoritatively proclaimed by a church".

Almighty and everlasting God,

You have taken up body and soul
into the heavenly glory the Immaculate Virgin Mary, Mother of Your Son: Grant, we beseech You,
that, ever intent upon heavenly things,
we may be worthy to be partakers of her glory.
Through Jesus Christ Your Son, our Lord,
who lives and reigns with You and the Holy Spirit,
One God, forever and ever. Amen.

From the Roman Missal (Thanks to David Morrison)

New Wine-New Wineskins When you return from your summer activities, look for more details on how you can get involved in this process that offers the opportunity for new friendships, stronger faith, and a deeper relationship with God through prayer and Scriptures in a small group setting.
