We're just a few days from the beginning of Lent. Ash Wednesday is this week, and with it we will enter into forty days of prayer, fasting, and almsgiving. Catholic parishes do all sorts of things to make Lent a special time. There's Bible study, days of reflection, and retreats. There are faith-sharing groups and Stations of the Cross, extra times for prayer and the celebration of the sacrament of penance. During Lent we try to empty ourselves of sin and evil and make room in our hearts so that we can be filled with the love of God and our neighbor. This Sunday's Gospel is a perfect pre-Lenten text. After all, how many parishes host fish fries or meatless dinners on the Fridays of Lent? All those fish have to come from somewhere! Of course, the great catch of fish in the Gospel is not about our Lenten fasting and abstaining from meat on Friday. Simon and James and John had no idea that there would ever be a season called Lent. They were fishermen going about their daily tasks. As Jesus makes clear, the miracle of the great number of fish is a metaphor about the growth of the community of believers. That is what Lent is all about too. During Lent we pray strenuously for those who will plunge into the waters of baptism at the Easter Vigil. These men and women are the concrete signs of the growth of our community. But our penitential disciplines of prayer, fasting, and almsgiving are not for ourselves alone. Through our actions others should be able to see how much we love God and love our neighbor. In that way, what we do during Lent acts as the net that we cast out into the sea of the world, bringing others closer to Christ because they are caught up in God's love by the example we share. Lent is a time to cast out into the deep.

STEWARDSHIP: "Then I heard the voice of the Lord saying, 'Whom shall I send? Who will go for us?' 'Here I am,' I said, 'send me!'" (Isaiah 6:8)

Every day – in little ways and in big ways – God asks, "Whom shall I send?" Whether it is someone to take on a new ministry or just someone to open a door for an overburdened stranger, God constantly looks to see if we are willing to respond with the eagerness that Isaiah showed when he answered, "Here I am, send me!"

For the Week: The Sanctuary Candle has been requested in memory of John & Gerry by Angela & son. The Divine Mercy Candles have been requested in memory of Evelyn Scrape by Tony Antonelli.

Gain Spiritual Insight & See Parishioners on the Web

Fr. Stan encourages you to visit the Parish Web Page. Each week there is a new video message written for your spiritual growth and delivered by a parishioner from either Christ the King or Sacred Heart Parish. www.ctkmanvillechurch.com

I have observed a number of unnecessary conversations in the church before and after Mass. Assuming what is being said is not itself sinful, it is morally neutral to talk. However, Catholic moral teaching tells us the "circumstances" change the moral character of our actions. Talking in Church when not demanded by necessity is unacceptable. For the following reasons I am asking you to preserve the holy silence in our church.

It is the Lord's house, which Jesus taught was a "house of prayer" (MT 21:13) and thus should be used according to its purpose. We should have reverence by maintaining a prayerful silence.

It is a disturbance to neighbors who are trying to pray. Again, necessity permits talking just as it permits practicing the music before Mass and so on.

If you must talk in Church, please keep your level at a whisper so as not to be a disturbance. Fr. Stan

Today we celebrate World Marriage Day
"Love One Another"

In 1983 WORLD MARRIAGE DAY WAS DESIGNATED AS A DAY TO HONOR THE HUSBAND AND WIFE AS THE HEAD OF THE FAMILY, THE BASIC UNIT OF SOCIETY. For more info., log on to the Catholic Bishops (USCCB) marriage resource website: www.foryourmarriage.org

Worldwide Marriage Encounter

2nd Collection for The Catholic Spirit The Annual drive to support our diocesan newspaper, The Catholic Spirit, is taking place today, during Catholic Press Month. The Catholic Spirit is now beginning its 18th successful year of publishing and has a special role to play in your life as a practicing Catholic. Please support their good work by using the envelope in your collection packet, or one that appears in the newspaper itself. Any amount will be greatly appreciated.

Coming Next Week (Feb. 16th & 17th)

Hospitality—Join us downstairs after all Masses for food and fellowship.

60' Plus—Sunday 2 PM to 4 PM Join us in the Parish Hall for fun and food!

From Caritas—The Sharing Ministry We would like to thank the CTK Altar Rosarians for the donation of the monies they earned through their Super-Bowl Bake Sale last weekend. Caritas will be able to help feed and clothe many individuals during these difficult economic times. We have purchased food cards through the school which profits the school as well and, we will be able to help people in need enjoy an Easter dinner. This was a very generous donation and, combined with our other resources will make a positive impact on many people's lives.

CHRIST THE KING SCHOOL NEWS

Christ the King School/Basket Auction Tickets

Admission tickets for our Pot 'O Gold Basket Auction on March 1st are available for sale in the Christ the King School office starting 2/4/13. You can purchase tickets any day that school is open by calling 908-526-1339 and arranging a pickup time. Tickets are $20. This admission entitles the bearer to one sheet of 25 raffle tickets for non-premium prizes, the door prize drawings, and refreshments. PLEASE PURCHASE ONLY ONE ADMISSION TICKET PER PERSON ATTENDING. Purchasing more than one ticket does not gain you anything; (an admission ticket costs more than the free raffle sheet), and it eliminates a spot for another guest. The auction is a LIMITED SALES event. As in the past, we anticipate that it will be sold out prior to March 1st, with no ticket availability at the door! We are again offering pre-event sales of discounted value packages of basket raffle sheets. Package A includes 2 non-premium sheets and 1 premium sheet for $25; and Package B includes 2 premium sheets and 1 non-premium sheet for $30. These tickets will be available for pick-up at the auction. Additional raffle sheets (for both premium and non-premium prizes) and packages, grand prize tickets, and 50/50 tickets will be sold at the auction. Advance sale packages must be purchased by Friday, February 15th to allow time for processing. After that date, all packages will need to be purchased the night of the event. Donations for the auction are also still being accepted. Any questions, please contact Stacy Snell at (908) 541-0467 or the school office on 908-526-1339.
